

Wark Barracks

ARMY MESS

Welcome to _____'s

ARMY MESS

Takeaway Homework Menu.

HOW TO ORDER

Choose your homework task from the menu. The bullet rating indicates the difficulty of each task, ranging from "easy" to "challenging". You may only try each dish once, and you only do one homework task each time you order.

Feel free to send any homework through to your teacher using your Class Dojo account

Map battles of History- List the Allied forces and the Axis powers. Now find a world map that shows who the Allies and the Axis were.

Frontline Food- Research the rations that a soldier would receive on the front line and list their daily and calculate their daily caloric intake.

Atomic Reflection- Find images of Hiroshima after the atom bomb was dropped. Write a reflection of the effects of nuclear weapons.

Choose your own adventure- Think about and write your own question that you have about WWII. Now see if you can find the answer.

In League- Research the League of Nations and write a paragraph about who they were and what they did. (Your text has information)

Song Siege- Google WWII music and find a song from the time to listen to and read the lyrics. Write a paragraph about what the song is saying about the war and its purpose.

Dear Diary- Write a diary entry from the perspective of someone detained in a prisoner of war camp. Also look at 'Words of War' on School360.

Blitz Breach- Research the cities targeted in the Blitz and plot them on a map. List where it would be safe to send children.

Leader Reader- Read about one of the leaders using one of the books on the Epic reading app. Write some interesting facts about them.

American Artillery- Listen to Roosevelt's speech when America declares war on Japan. List the persuasive techniques he uses.

Blitzkrieg battle- Research Blitzkrieg tactics and write dot points about what they were. How did they differ from previous tactics?

Plane Patrol- Investigate and compare the planes used by British and German air forces. Create a table to show similarities and differences.

Propaganda Pockets- design a propaganda poster aimed at how people on the home front can help the war effort.

Reading Reconnaissance- Read one of the novels on the recommended reading tab on Moodle. Write a book review and discuss which part of the war the book focuses on.

Movie Melee- Watch a film about WWII and write a film review that discusses the part of the war the film focuses on.

